THIERRY'S SPORTS CORNER

First off Congrats to Corinthians as Campeon Del Mundo, I need to suck up to my Brazilian client/friend! Now niceties aside Arsenal looks sort of dreadful, I say sort of only because they just won 2 in a row and the frog Giroud managed to score like 4 goals. Like Arsene says "well if you are 4th in England it is like a title", did I read that or was it my imagination? just give Walcott 100k per week and he will stay and score more goals damnit. And stop texting RVP in your spare time. Am I losing patience maybe? In other news France has looked pretty good lately and there is a big game looking vs Spain later in February. If we win it we should be off to Brazil in 2014. A game between France and England in Corinthians new stadium, ha dream on !
