THIERRY'S "SPORTS TALK" CORNER

Just like everybody I did not give Chelsea a fighting chance... and see what just happened today ! so Spurs are out of Champions League and Harry Redknapp went from top of the world to a has been quite quickly I 'd say. Hey that is a good transition towards Euro 2012. June 11 France will destroy England, then Spain will be a non starter and finally it will be "Deutschland Uber Alles" once again in another penalty shoot out where Ribery will miss ! but the big question on my mind is : how to keep Van Persie at Arsenal. Apparently the wife does not want to go to Manchester, could be worse how bout Leeds !
