THIERRY'S SPORTS CORNER

Another season under way, I have been a fan of Mexico during the Olympics, that young team will be fun to watch in ...Brazil in 2014. EPL looks like it will be very entertaining with teams like Swansea showing definite skills. My Arsenal traitor of the year is not French (Nasri) but Dutch (Van Persie), but I still got to admire Arsene business sense : no new contract no problem let us rake in the cash ! Champion's League looks like another disaster for the French clubs, Montpellier has o experience and lost key players (Giroud to... Arsenal), PSG is full of egos and it is Paris after all. Who else ? ha Lille, they got a new stadium at least they can fill it a few times and then au revoir
